Tape hurt Islam, too

Sayed Iqbal Mohamed

BHAN Mahabir is right in stating that certain people use holy books to denigrate others (May 25). However, it is not true that no Muslim apologised to Hindus and Christians for From Hinduism to Islam made by the Islamic Propagation Centre.

This tape first reared its ugly head in the early 1980s. My motive to have (it) banned was ... based on the fundamental Islamic principles of the Qur'an ... that every human being is a dignified person. That while Muslims are required to invite others to Islam, discussions and debates must not lead to insults (or) ridicule of people's beliefs.
